

All Change

We are certainly going through a major period of change at Athelstan, so we thought we would try and keep you all up to date with what is happening.

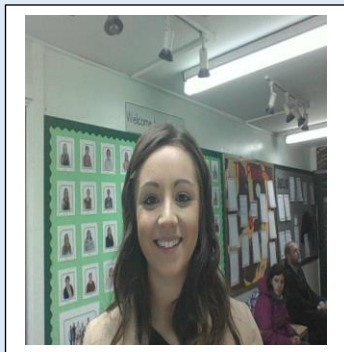

Classes for next year

Mr Tucker will be teaching the older Y6 children upstairs in the new wing in the Meneske room.

Mr Ivel will be teaching the younger Y6 and older Y5 children, upstairs in the new wing in the Violet room.

Mr Ivel is an experienced teacher joining us from a West Yorkshire school.

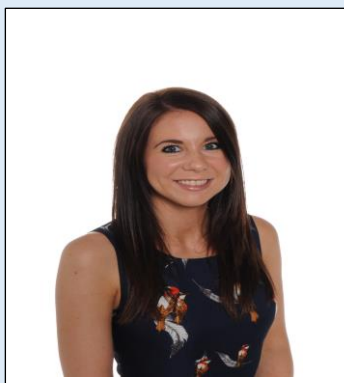

Miss Town will be teaching the younger Y5 children and the oldest Y4 children, Miss Town is an ex Athelstan Pupil who will be taking up her first teaching post with us. Her class will be upstairs in the Indigas room upstairs.

Miss Middlebrook and Mrs Barton will continue their job share teaching Y4 upstairs in the Indigo room. Miss Middlebrook will be teaching at the start of the week

Miss Frampton will be teaching an Y3 class downstairs in the Blue room. Miss Frampton is an experienced teacher relocating to the area.

Mrs Whelerton will also be teaching an Y3 class based downstairs in the Neela room. From September Mrs Whelerton will also be the KS2 Coordinator, taking a position on the school's senior management team.

Mrs Hayton will be teaching an Y2 class in the Giallo room, which is in the new wing on the ground floor.

Miss Pugh will be teaching the other Y2 class in the Green room which is also in the new wing on the ground floor. Miss Pugh will also be taking on the KS1 coordinator role from September, taking a position on the school's senior management team.

